Dear Bill:

Many thanks for your letter of 9 December concerning [REDACTED] who is interested in joining the CIA.

I have advised our Personnel Director of [REDACTED] interest in our organization and, when the necessary forms arrive here, I assure you that we will thoroughly explore the possibilities of employment for him. Just at the moment we do not have many openings since we have been reducing our personnel and must continue to do so, however, we are always interested in bright young people who wish to make a career with the Agency. In any event, I am most appreciative of your thought in bringing [REDACTED] to my personal attention and hope that something may come of it.

It was good hearing from you and perhaps we can get together again before very long.

Clover joins me in sending best regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
